INTRODUCTION

ROTHERHAM SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN PARTNERSHIP (RSCP) MULTI-AGENCY TRAINING PROGRAMME 2025-26

As part of its Learning and Development Strategy, the RSCP provides multi-agency safeguarding training workshops, e-learning, briefing / bite size sessions and conferences. The RSCP multi-agency safeguarding training is offered to staff and volunteers from all partner agencies who come into contact with children, young people and / or their families within Rotherham in the course of their work.

LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT – Which are right for me?

Professionals and practitioners who work with children and young people need to ensure that they access the appropriate safeguarding training. In order to make this easier, we have developed a Competency Framework which identifies five different levels of roles and responsibilities, and which training courses would be most appropriate for each level.

This is developed from 'Safeguarding children and young people: roles and competencies for health care staff INTERCOLLEGIATE DOCUMENT' Third edition: March 2014. Revised, intercollegiate Doc. 4th Edition 2019. Safeguarding Children and Young People: Roles and Competences for Healthcare Staff. <https://www.rcn.org.uk/professional-development/publications/pub-007366>

All applications for training should be discussed in conjunction with your line manager and / or your safeguarding lead to ensure that you are attending the right training for you. The full Competency Framework can be found on Pages 4 to 12.

Rotherham Multi-Agency Workforce

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN COMPETENCY FRAMEWORK

Effective multi-agency training arrangements are the key to maximising the support available across organisations to identify needs and safeguard children and families. A strong multi agency approach to training and development across the public and voluntary sector workforce is integral to building rigorous practice and contributing to the efficacy of the system. Whilst agencies need to be responsible for their own core training and development arrangements, it is vital that there is shared responsibility, shared ownership, and a collegiate approach to understanding the importance of multi-agency working and how this can impact on children and families.

The Rotherham Multi-Agency Workforce Safeguarding Competency Framework outlines a key set of competencies that are aligned to specific public and voluntary sector roles. The Framework has been developed across multi-agency partners and the competencies are ordered in relation to the levels and complexity of practitioner engagement “They are a combination of skills, knowledge, attitudes, and values that are required for safe and effective practice (Chapter 10)¹

All staff that come into contact with children have a responsibility to safeguard and promote their welfare and know ‘what to do’ if they have concerns about safeguarding issues, including child protection. This responsibility is equally valid with staff working primarily with adults who have dependent children (or access to families that have) It is therefore important that training and development meets the levels of complexity that professionals work with on a day-to-day basis. For example, a frontline housing repair worker needs to have a basic understanding of neglect and how to identify and report a child protection concern but would not require the same level or intensity of training as a Health Visitor or Family Support Worker. Learning from Serious Case Reviews², which take place following a serious incident or death of a child, frequently cites a lack of multi-agency information sharing, lack of escalation and lack of awareness across professionals to the issues that were occurring in families. The framework is designed to enable all organisations and workers operating within them to clearly understand their roles and responsibilities within child and family safeguarding competencies.

Animal abuse and the link to family violence – advice for practitioners

On average, every 30 seconds someone in England and Wales dials the RSPCA's 24-hour cruelty line for help. 143,004 animal cruelty complaints were investigated in 2015 alone.

Virtual College worked with The Links Group to create a free online course designed to help frontline staff spot animal abuse and understand the link between violence to people and violence to animals.

To register for the free training, click: understanding-animal-welfare.

The course has been designed to help frontline staff understand the link between family abuse and animal abuse and is aimed at all professionals who have a responsibility to safeguard vulnerable children, young people, and adults at risk.

Co-author of the course, Vicki Betton, works for veterinary charity PDSA and is an officer of The Links Group.

She says, "The veterinary profession is now familiar with the concept of the 'battered pet' and recognises that there are sometimes interrelationships commonly known as 'links'.

"This course uses our animal welfare expertise to help human healthcare colleagues to recognise potential concerns about pets in the homes they visit, even if the pet is not being directly harmed.

"By undertaking the course, human healthcare professionals will have a better understanding of animal wellbeing and will know where to seek advice if they suspect there is an issue."

The course is particularly appropriate to child protection services, health professionals, police officers, teachers and education experts, children's social care, adult social care and housing authorities.

The course has been written to provide a basic understanding of what animal abuse is, how to spot the signs, as well as to understand the recognised link between family abuse and animal abuse, and understand what to do if you have suspicions of abuse.

Prevention

Animal control protection officers, social care workers and anyone working with children or animals must consider that all cases of abuse have the potential to be connected to other forms of violence or dysfunction in the home. In the majority of cases, these types of professionals will be the first responders and first point of contact for a person, animal, or family in need of help.

In order to prevent animals and children from being harmed, awareness surrounding these links must be built. This includes encouraging communities and members of the public to take action by giving greater importance to suspected animal abuse, with the knowledge that they could be preventing other forms of violence.

The NSPCC have produced a useful leaflet Understanding the Links which can be found at www.nspcc.org.uk

THE ROLE OF THE DESIGNATED SAFEGUARDING LEAD AND ROTHERHAM PROCESSES (EARLY HELP AND CHILDREN'S SOCIAL CARE)

'Keeping Children Safe in Education', is statutory guidance for schools and colleges. It states that schools and colleges should appoint a Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) who should 'take lead responsibility for safeguarding and child protection. This should be explicit in the role holder's job description and the school / college should ensure that the DSL has the appropriate status and authority to carry out the duties of the post. The role carries a significant level of responsibility, and the DSL should be given additional time, funding, training, resources, and support to carry out the role effectively'. There is also the requirement to have trained Deputy DSL who can deputise in the absence of the DSL.

This CPD will explore:

- Confidentiality, making referrals, managing concerns
- Multi agency working including case conferences and core groups
- Allegations against staff and the role of the Local Authority Designated Officer
- MASH and Children's Social Care – process and practice
- Allegations against staff and the role of the Local Authority Designated Officer

EDUCATION SAFEGUARDING FORUM

The Education Safeguarding Forum is held every term, in person, at Rockingham Professional Development Centre. The Forum is led by the Education Safeguarding Officer based with School Effectiveness, CYPS. All Headteachers / Designated Safeguarding Leads from all phases of education are invited to attend. Schools should consider sending a Deputy Designated Safeguarding Officer if the DSL is unable to attend. Representatives from the Rotherham Safeguarding Children's Partnership will be present at each meeting as well as representatives from Rotherham MASH and the MASH Education Consultant.

The Forum offers DSLs the opportunity to network and discuss relevant and topical issues relating to Safeguarding Children. Each meeting will provide learning opportunities for DSLs to further develop and enhance their skills and experience in their role.

The event will include updates to statutory guidance for school, including Keeping Children Safe in Education, Prevent, Operation Encompass updates, information relating to emerging themes and topic both nationally and locally and from local partner agencies. Ofsted updates will be a standing agenda item.

FAMILY ASSESSMENT OF NEED (FAN) (NEW)

This new training is for all practitioners who work with children and families across the borough. The FAN is the common assessment tool used within Rotherham to understand need for children and families and ensure a co-ordinated plan of support. The FAN ensures that children and young people thrive in their families by receiving the right help, at the right time, and in an easy way.

The training is designed to equip practitioners with the skills and understanding needed to support families with a holistic assessment, looking at how we work collaboratively in partnership, with a strength-based approach to identify needs and coordinate effective support for children and their families from when worries begin to emerge.

Participants will learn how to structure assessments with restorative practice principles, ensuring that the voices of our children and families are central to the support they receive. The training explores key elements such as being a lead practitioner, understanding the importance of family networks and developing family plans that promote sustainable change. This is an opportunity for practitioners to enhance their practice and contribute to meaningful outcomes for families requiring help support in line with Working Together to Safeguard Children 2023 and Keeping Children Safe in Education.

GRADED CARE PROFILE 2 TRAINING (NEW)

Graded Care Profile 2 (GCP2) is a strengths- and evidence-based assessment tool to measure the care quality parents or carers give a child. GCP2 helps professionals measure the quality of care provided by a parent or carer in meeting their child's needs.

Using the GCP2 assessment tool, professionals grade aspects of family life on a scale of one to five. This helps them identify areas where the level of care children receive is good and where it could be significantly improved. Professionals can then provide guidance and/or interventions, or signpost or refer on to the most appropriate supporting agency.

Using GCP2, you'll be able to:

- Measure the quality of care being provided to children you work with;
- Identify where families require further support and whether the level of care received needs to be improved;
- Implement a constructive working relationship with families;
- Increase confidence in decision making at all levels;
- Promote multi-agency working and train professionals across agencies to use the tool – creating a common language and improving the quality of referrals.

TRAUMA INFORMED WORKSHOPS FOR SOUTH YORKSHIRE: SUMMER 2025

TRAUMA INFORMED PRACTICE AND SKILLS – STAGE 2: PART A

A trauma-informed approach represents a way of working across all services that promotes six principles: safety, empowerment, choice, collaboration, trust, and cultural consideration.

Stage 2: Trauma Skilled Working aims to build on the Stage 1 (Trauma Informed Working) training, increasing our understanding of what psychological trauma is, how it can affect the people we work with, and how people can be supported to recover.

This training is delivered in two parts (A and B) and is for anyone who is likely to have contact with people affected by trauma, even if you or your service do not have a specific role in supporting recovery from trauma.

You can attend Part A and B of this training in one day or you can attend Part A and then Part B on another date.

To book onto this training, please do so via: <https://www.safeguardingsheffieldchildren.org/events/event/safeguarding-workshop-trauma-informed-practice-and-skills-stage-2-part-a>

TRAUMA INFORMED PRACTICE STAGE 1

A trauma-informed approach represents a way of working across all services that promotes six principles: safety, empowerment, choice, collaboration, trust and cultural consideration.

This training aims to introduce those principles and encourage discussion and reflection regarding how they may be applied in practice. Sheffield is committed to becoming a trauma-informed city, so this training is relevant to all agencies.

This is now available as a train the trainer so it can be delivered internally in services. You only need to attend this training if your service is not offering it. If you are interested in the train the trainer, please contact safeguardingchildrentraining@sheffield.gov.uk

To book onto this training, please do so via: <https://www.safeguardingsheffieldchildren.org/events/event/safeguarding-workshop-trauma-informed-practice-stage-1>

INTERGENERATIONAL TRAUMA

Within services we may work with adults, children or families. Whatever setting we work in, we may see the impact of intergenerational trauma.

This training aims to define intergenerational trauma and to emphasise the importance of working within the context of intergenerational trauma.

Within this training there will be space to reflect on the barriers and strengths of working in this way.

To book onto this training, please do so via: <https://www.safeguardingsheffieldchildren.org/events/event/safeguarding-workshop-intergenerational-trauma>

REGISTRATION AND BOOKING

Application process:

All courses provided by the RSCP are bookable via our online booking system and can be viewed on our Prospectus.

Once you have selected a course, you will need to book your place. Our courses are booked through Virtual College, and you need to be registered onto the system before you can book your place. (It is only necessary to register once onto the system) If you are not already registered please register at: <https://rotherhammbc.vc-enable.co.uk/register>

* Please note – All Central RMBC employees (excluding school staff) are automatically registered with Virtual College, so please log in using your RMBC log on credentials. <https://rotherhammbc.vc-enable.co.uk>

To book onto Virtual or Face to Face Courses

Log into your account at <https://rotherhammbc.vc-enable.co.uk> and click onto events - click onto available events and this brings up the events to choose from - click onto the event of interest and click to select the session then click the button join the event.

To access e-learning <https://rotherhammbc.vc-enable.co.uk>

Click onto the Learning circle with the Mortar Board Hat, this will bring up the e-learning modules you could choose to complete in your own time.

Enquiries can be made by email to RSCPTraining@rotherham.gov.uk

Attending a workshop:

Please make sure that you arrive in time to start the course promptly, at the stated start time.

Due to budget constraints, lunch is not provided on face-to-face training, so please make your own arrangements for this, but be advised that there are no microwave or fridge facilities at our venues. Tea and coffee are provided at morning, lunch and afternoon breaks.

Copies of power-point presentations used on RSCP workshops will not be made available on the day. Where applicable, following their attendance at a workshop, participants will receive an e-mail containing all the relevant or referenced information, plus the presentations used on the day.

Should you have any additional requirements that would assist your learning and participation on a workshop, please inform us of this on application. We will make every effort to meet these needs, and if this is not possible, we will contact you to discuss why.

All participants on RSCP workshops will receive a Certificate of Attendance; however, the trainer reserves the right not to give certificates to people who do not attend for a full day or are deemed not to have fully participated in the session.

The register will be completed during the week following the course and you will be required to log into the system to complete the evaluation form which will then release your certificate.

Evaluation and Measuring the Impact of training

The RSCP remains committed to quality assuring all our workshops, as noted above, all participants are required to complete an evaluation form in order to receive their certificate.

We ask that all participants take part in the follow up survey, as this information can help us when reviewing which workshops are working well, which need to be changed, and what should be added to our training programme in the future.
